Subbu.	7.12.2000. Shri Deep Keshawwani, learned counsel for the applicants. Shri Ranveersingh, learned counsel for the State. Parties are heard. The submissions of the learned counsel for the applicants are that as from the case-diary statements and the First Information Report it does not appear that the intention of the applicants was to commit murder or to cause any injury which was dangerous to life, therefore, a charge punishable under Section 307 I.P.C could not be levelled against the applicants. In the opinion of this Court, the question whether the applicants intended to cause such bodily injury which was otherwise dangerous to life or could endanger the life is not required to be seen at this stage. The question of intention will be seen by the Court after recording of the evidence. At this stage, I find no reason to interfere. The petition is dismissed.	 Sd/- R.S. Garg Judge
